THE ATLANTA-REGION TRANSIT LINK AUTHORITY
HB 930: Atlanta-region Transit Link Authority (the ‘ATL’)
Intends to improve coordination, integration and efficiency of transit in Metro Atlanta.

HB930 passed the General Assembly on March 29, 2018 and the Governor signed it into law on May 3, 2018, thus creating a new regional governance and funding structure called...

A unifying entity that ensures coordinated planning and funding of transit across Metro Atlanta.

Oversees all transit activity to increase transparency around regional transit planning, funding and operations.

Local Level Appointees

- Caucus of Legislators, County Commission Chairs & Mayors within Districts: 10

TOTAL

- 10
Each district’s board member shall:

• Be a resident of the authority district which he or she represents

• Possess significant experience or expertise in a field that would be beneficial to the accomplishment of the function and purpose of the authority

• Other than the commissioner of transportation, no person holding any other “office of profit or trust under the state” shall serve on the board
Two-step process:

1) Mayors in each district meet to select a mayoral representative in the transit district election

2) Transit district election – called by county chair with largest population in district – occurs with three subgroups participating:

   - State legislators whose districts include any of the transit district
   - County commission chairs whose counties are part of the transit district
   - State legislators whose districts include any of the transit district
Step 1 – Mayoral Caucus:
9 mayors meet to select a rep for the district
10 election – from Brookhaven, Chamblee, Doraville, Dunwoody, Kennesaw, Marietta, Peachtree Corners, Sandy Springs, Smyrna

Step 2 – District Election:
- Called by county chair with largest population in district – Cobb in this case
- 32 Electors total
- 4 County commission chairs
- 2 Mayors (one from Step 1 + Atlanta)
- 9 State Senators
- 17 State Representatives
- Location of meeting may vary
Regional Transit Plan

1 of 2 Core Activities

• 6-year and 20-year time horizons
• Developed in consultation with the region’s Metropolitan Planning Organizations (MPOs)
• Coordinate existing and future transit service
• Regional stakeholders, including local governments, may submit requests to the ATL for additions and amendments to the Plan from time to time based on changing conditions
• After 1/1/2019, referendum transit projects must be in RTP & approved by the ATL
• Regional Transit Plan must include plan for the creation of a unified brand to encompass all transit service providers in 13-county region

• As of Jan. 1, 2019, any new MARTA asset worth more than $250,000 must display The ATL logo and brand, prominently featuring the acronym “ATL”

• As of Jan. 1, 2023, the ATL logo and brand must be used on any and all MARTA property

ATL Interaction with Existing Transit Entities

MARTA – GRTA – SRTA: Still exists and continues to exist

- MARTA has exclusive authority for operating region’s heavy rail system, including any new heavy rail projects
- MARTA retains control over its current local funding & operations
- MARTA’s legal contractual obligations unaffected

- GRTA’s authority over the TIP, DRI, and Governor’s Development Council remain intact as they exist today
- The ATL is administratively attached to GRTA
- GRTA’s role in regional transit transitions to ATL no later than July 1, 2020

- SRTA’s tolling, GTIB, and transportation financing roles remain intact
- SRTA’s GO! Transit program will be coordinated with the ATL
- SRTA’s role in regional transit operations transitions to ATL no later than July 1, 2021
ATL Interaction with Existing Transit Entities
ARC – GCT – CATS – CobbLinc – Others: Still exists and continues to exist

- ARC & ATL work closely together to revise current regional transit process
- ARC & ATL work closely together to ensure that Regional Transit Plan aligns and integrates with TIP and STP processes and funding
- Gwinnett, Cherokee and Cobb have many options going forward
- County Demand-Response Transit Services
- County Vanpool Programs
- University Transit Services

Special Fulton County Provisions

Regional Transit Funds

Fulton County – can hold a referendum for additional 0.2% sales tax for transit, in increments of .05% for at least 10 and no more than 30 years

Restrictions Unique to Fulton County:

- Sales tax proceeds cannot be used to fund heavy rail expansion but can be used for light-rail, bus rapid transit, or other transit services provided by MARTA.

- Local governments will have planning and zoning power over any proposed transit-oriented development.

- Before a referendum can be called, an intergovernmental agreement must be entered into between Fulton County Board of Commissioners and Mayors in Fulton representing at least 70 percent of the population of Fulton County (outside the City of Atlanta).
